

City Paragraphs.

Monday is Emancipation Day.

Hon. J. Milton Turner still abideth "in our midst."

Don't follow the band Monday. Keep off the streets.

Gray and Costley are putting in a new tile flooring.

Metropolitan A. M. E. church announces a "Star" Concert for May 4.

Senator W. E. Mason will be orator of the day Monday, at the open air emancipation exercises.

Mr. Eugene C. Jennings, of Louisville, Ky., has been appointed as a watchman in the Census Bureau.

Prof. Robert H. Terrell and Dr. C. B. Purvis are administering the estate of the estate of the late F. G. Barber does.

Mrs. Jennie E. Douglass, of 1164 21st street has recovered from quite a serious illness much to the gratification of a host of friends.

Potomac Lodge, No. 992, G. U. O. of O. F., will give their 35th anniversary reception next Thursday evening at Odd Fellows' Hall.

The Webster, Sheppard and Lucas Amateur Concert Company gave a well attended concert and ball last Thursday evening in Alexandria.

Rev. J. L. McGoy, of Charleston, S. C., preached at the Second Baptist church last Sunday morning, and made an excellent impression.

The congregation of Asbury M. E. church is delighted over the return of that magnetic orator and profound theologian, Rev. I. L. Thomas.

The fifteenth anniversary of the Second Baptist Lyceum will be appropriately celebrated Sunday, April, 22. A fine program is being arranged.

Prof. J. W. Cromwell, principal of Banneker school, talked interestingly of the "Jim Crow Car Law" last Sunday before the Congressional Lyceum.

Miss Lizzie Johnson, who has for sometime been the guest of Mrs. James Hunter, 3320 M street, northwest, left Thursday for her home in King George county, Virginia.

Mr. Frederick Williams, who came down from Boston with the Manufactures division of the Census Office last week, is a nephew of the late Frederick G. Barbodoes.

Christian Union Lodge, No. 40, Good Samaritans, will celebrate its third anniversary by giving an Easter and Emancipation reception Monday evening at Green's Hall.

The District Afro-American Council will elect officers on the first Monday evening in May. Former Governor P. B. S. Pinchback is slated for a unanimous re-election.

Mrs. Charles De Forrest of Jersey City, N. J., and Miss Mamie Little page of New York city have been visiting friends here for the past week and having an enjoyable time.

Mrs. Henrietta Marshall gave a luncheon on Wednesday to a party of ten in honor of her cousin Miss Ella Anderson, who has been playing here this week with the Big Sensation Company.

If you would steer clear of a cold, the grip or an attack of pneumonia or need a spring tonic, take a few doses of Harper or Wilson whiskies. They are sold at Naughton's 1926 14th st., n. w.

Miss Lena Holmes, a highly accomplished pianist, and officiates in that capacity for the 19th Street Baptist choir, is "substituting" for Miss Lillian V. Green at the Second Baptist Lyceum.

The wedding of Miss Lillian V. Green and Mr. Earl Bryant is announced for Monday evening. Until further notice the happy couple will make their home with the parents of the bride at 43 F street, northwest.

The Sunday evening concerts at the cosy apartments of the Personal Liberty League, 340 Pennsylvania avenue, still continue to be popular features with the young men. Manager Edelin spares no pains to please all of his visitors.

Bethel Literary and Historical Association will hold its annual election May 8. Prof. W. H. Richards, who has made a most capable presiding officer for the past two years will be re-elected without opposition, if he can be prevailed upon to accept another term.

Mr. W. C. Payte, by instruction of the District Afro-American Council, has drawn up a strong appeal to be presented to all of the National Conventions of the great political parties, praying that suffrage be granted to the citizens of the District of Columbia.

At 4 o'clock p. m., tomorrow Prof. Robert H. Terrell, Principal of the High School will formerly present the Congressional Lyceum's gold medal to the successful contestant in the public debate recently held at Shiloh Baptist church under the auspices of the Lyceum.

Miss Lillian Clayton Jewett, of Boston, lectured on "Lynching" Monday evening to a large audience at the Second Baptist church. Quite a neat sum was realized for the Lillian Clayton Jewett dormitory to be erected in connection with the John Hay Industrial School.

Miss J. N. Sparques, formerly of Washington, now of New York is much improved from the treatment received for her eyes, and is able to resume her duties at dressmaking again. Miss Sparques is making a small painting which she hopes to have exhibited at the Paris Exposition.

Mr. John W. Thompson, a prominent lawyer of Rochester, N. Y., and treasurer of the National Afro-American Council, was in the city Tuesday, the guest of Editor T. Thomas Fortune. He met the general finance committee of the Council Tuesday evening at the residence of Prof. Jesse Lawson.

The Coachmen's Ball which is extensively advertised to take place on the evening of April 30 at the great Convention Hall will be the most spectacular event of the kind ever given in this city. The committee is hard at work arranging a multitude of details, and they expect to entertain an immense crowd. They say the best of order will be preserved and objectionable characters will be rigidly excluded.

Miss Retta B. Matthews assisted by Misses Marion Wheeler, Nettie Langston, Gertrude Ryan, Oceana Brooks, Louise Harlan and Mattie Reynolds will preside over a booth of fancy articles at the Bazaar to be held at St. Luke's Parish Hall during Easter week. These young ladies earnestly solicit the patronage of their many friends.

Mr. W. L. Hawkins, an exceptionally bright young man from Milwaukee, Wis., has been promoted to the position of typewriter in the appointment division of the Census Office, and is doing some expert work in that line. Mr. Hawkins read law for two years with a leading Milwaukee firm and will continue his studies here in the law department of Howard University. He is the son of the late Bishop Hawkins of the Canadian branch of the Methodist Church.

One of the prettiest weddings that has ever taken place in this city was that of Miss Lulu Carrell, daughter of Mrs. Fanny Carroll of 1801 8th st., and Mr. Richard W. Turner, assistant superintendent of the Sunday school of Metropolitan A. M. E. church, which took place April 4th at the bride's residence. Rev. J. Albert Johnson performed the ceremony which was witnessed by a large concourse of friends. The presents were numerous and extremely beautiful. The happy pair will reside at 326 Elm street, Le Droit Park.

The Dvorak Musical Society.

The Dvorak Musical Society have issued a very handsome card announcing their initial appearance, presenting the "Pirates of Penzance" (a beautiful comic opera) with a cast of thirty-five of our best local amateur singers, accompanied by string orchestra, and and produced with scenic effect, at the Academy of Music, Friday evening June 1, 1900. This is indeed an innovation which merits the hearty support of the community. Popular prices will prevail, and the advance sale of seats will begin May 1, at the music store of Henry White 929 F street, northwest, or tickets (exchangeable) may be obtained from members of the company.

The Junior Choir of the Metropolitan Baptist church, Mr. Samuel Hunter, chorister and Miss Henrietta Johnson, organist will render special Easter music eleven a. m.

All Gloves Fitted to the hand and Kept in Repair for one Year.

Gloves for EASTER Now Ready.

COME and make your selections early—while assortments are complete—thus insuring your being fitted perfectly—in the style of glove you desire. Nowhere else can you find half the styles that we carry—and our prices are always LOWER THAN ELSE WHERE for the high-class goods that we import and manufacture. Prices range from $1 up.

Ask to see our new "Zanzara" Glove—made of finest French kid, in all shades, with three clasps, and fancy stitching, price

$1.75

MEN'S GLOVES.—Fine Kid and Suedes, $1 up. "Cadet" sizes (short fingers,) $1.50.

Gloves cleaned by Our New French Odorless Process. Satisfaction guaranteed. Mail orders a specialty.

LOUVRE GLOVE CO., New Store
931 F Street.
Store open Saturdays till 9 p. m.

CREDIT

Get a Carriage For the Baby.

If you haven't a Carriage or Go-Cart, you can get one here—and we won't add a penny to the price just because you prefer paying for it as you can spare the money—weekly or monthly. All the new spring styles are here; beauties at $10 and $12. Others for less—and more. The matting is ready, too, and it is well to bear in mind that we cut them, fit them to your floor, and tack them down, FREE. There is no waste; you pay only for the actual number of yards received.

Grogan's

MAMMOTH CREDIT HOUSE,

817-819-821-823 Seventh Street N. W.

Between H and I Streets.

Better than any
at $3.50

As good as many
at $4.00

Equal some
at $5.00

When you tire of wearing those heavy winter-weight Shoes, come in and select your choice from the many new spring styles that grace our shelves. And remember that in spite of the big advance in shoe leather

Regent Shoes are $2.50

And will remain at $2.50 no matter what other manufacturers charge. The new goods are of the same fine quality that has made Regent Shoes famous, and are better and more carefully made than any we have shown yet.

The Regent, 943 Pa. Ave.

Afflicted and unfortunate sufferers from Private diseases, Blood Poison, Venereal Eruptions, Last Vitality, Varicose, etc. Send for Sworn Testimonials and Book "Truth" to Prof. G. F. THEL, M. D., 604 North Sixth St., Philadelphia, Pa. Positively the only specialist in the United States to cure even the most celebrated specialists failed. Fresh cases cured in 4 to 10 days. Hours 9-5-9.

Cora E. Dorsey and Christine Dorsey Typewriting, Copying and Stenographic work satisfactorily performed at reasonable rates by the Misses Dorsey, Room 8, Le Droit Building, Corner 8th and F street northwest.